

CROSSWORD No. 4 clues

© Bob Shepherd 2007

ACROSS

- 1 / Quad sided rectilinear figure with opposite sides parallel.
- 7 / Branch of geometry.
- 10 / Side opposite the right angle in a triangle.
- 11 / Chemical symbol for our most abundant semiconductor.
- 12 / First human into space.
- 15 / Hiding place for goods, treasures, etc.
- 17 / Chemical symbol of a precious metal.
- 18 / In the direction of.
- 19 / Quadrilateral figure with opposite angles equal but being less or greater than 90 degrees.
- 20 / Cetacean.
- 21 / Terminate.
- 23 / Organ of sight.
- 24 / Normal distribution, hump shaped, density graphs.

DOWN

- 1 / Ancient Greek philosopher and mathematician.
- 2 / Linear rising waveform with quicker fall to beginning base line. (usually repeated)
- 3 / Small sphere usually used in random number selection.
- 4 / Mathematical curve made by points on a graph satisfying a particular condition.
- 5 / Machine used to convert mechanical energy into electrical energy.
- 6 / Parts of a circumference of a circle.
- 8 / Chemical symbol for possibly the densest element known.
- 9 / Graphic representations of a trigonometric function.
- 13 / Search for a spelling mistake.
- 14 / USA space agency. (abbreviated)
- 16 / Conquistador discoverer and destroyer of the Aztecs.
- 22 / Atmospheric pressure of 10^5 newtons per square metre.